Mark your calendars for a special national convening of Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy (AAPIIP) in Los Angeles on May 19-20, 2017. This expanded two-day meeting will explore the ways that philanthropy, working in partnership with AAPI community leaders and assets, can expand and mobilize resources for vulnerable AAPI communities. You will join a wide range of funders and stakeholders from the philanthropic sector at this one-of-a-kind AAPI conference to network and engage in knowledge-building sessions featuring grantmaking practitioners and other field experts. Participants will leave with new relationships, strategies, knowledge and inspiration for transformative philanthropy that expands and mobilizes resources for our community.

Staff and trustees of AAPIIP member foundations, individual donor members, chapter leaders, giving circle members, and nonprofit leaders interested in AAPI community issues are welcome to attend. Registrants can also participate in optional Dine-Arounds hosted by our Los Angeles Chapter.

Join us! Together we are “Elevating AAPI Philanthropy”

About AAPIP

Founded in 1990, AAPIP is a national membership and philanthropic advocacy organization dedicated to expanding and mobilizing philanthropic resources for underserved Asian American/Pacific Islander communities. Our members include staff and trustees of foundations and other grantmaking institutions as well as individual philanthropists and philanthropy-serving professionals. With ten regional chapters in the United States, we engage philanthropic and community leaders to address unmet needs, serve as a resource for and about AAPI communities, support giving by and to our communities and incubate new ideas and approaches for social justice philanthropy.
