ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE

May 19-21, 2025 | Swissôtel Chicago

When AAPIP was founded in 1990, less than a handful of philanthropic professionals identified as Asian American, Native Hawaiian, or Pacific Islander, and the needs of AANHPI communities were often ignored, overlooked, and undervalued by mainstream philanthropy. Over the last three and a half decades, AAPIP has cultivated a robust network of AANHPI philanthropic professionals, co-conspirators, and allies who are committed to mobilizing more philanthropic resources to AANHPI communities and working in solidarity to advance racial justice.

At a time when there are more AANHPI philanthropic professionals than ever before, yet philanthropic funding to AANHPI communities has remained stagnant, AAPIP invites philanthropy to reflect on and deepen their racial equity and racial justice strategies and practices. AANHPI communities are incredibly diverse and face a myriad of social and economic issues that remain unaddressed (and, in some cases, are rendered invisible).

During our time together in Chicago, AAPIP will offer spaces for funders to deepen their understanding of AANHPI community priorities and explore the role they can play in supporting AANHPI movements, creating connection and community building across the AAPIP national network, and sharing joy and celebration in the face of the many struggles our communities are grappling with.

Past AAPIP Conferences have taken place in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and New York City. Based on past conferences, we project the AAPIP 35th Anniversary Conference will bring together 500 people in-person and hundreds more virtually. Typical attendees include AANHPI and allied grantmakers from community foundations, corporate foundations, family foundations, private foundations, and public foundations. They join in community with racial and social justice activists and nonprofit leaders. Our sponsorships are a great way to reach this audience and show your support for AANHPI communities.
